

Bookshelf characterized by asymmetrical shelves and spacers. It can be used as room divider in open spaces. The third shelf protrudes more than the others and can be used as a support surface / writing desk.

In Briccola (code BOOKSHELF) the shelves are in solid wood and the spacers in blockboard, oak veneered; Bookshelf 2019, instead, is produced completely in veneered blockboard and spotlights can be added upon request (in this case the shelves are aligned on the back).
